

Come On In

The Harum Scarums (1931), via the Second Fiddles (2010)

Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
 Oh, step right down and let me have some fun
 My wife's gone out on an all-night run
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me

Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
 Oh, take this, take some of that
 Take anything in the doggone flat, now
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me

Piano solo

Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
 I'll fry some meat, cook some bread
 If you get sleepy there's a great big bed
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me

Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
 Oh, take this liquor, take this wine
 Let's get drunk and have one good time
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me

Piano/guitar duet

Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
 Take off your shirt, hang it on the stair
 Take off your socks and give your feet some air
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me

Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
 I'm drunk and disorderly, I don't care
 If you want to you can pull off your underwear
Come on in, there ain't nobody here but me
