You get mad when I call you old
You got the key in your hand, you can't find the hole

You drink too much, yes you drink too much
Gal, you can't do nothing when you drink too much

I give you money to pay your bills
Come home smelling like a whiskey still

You drink too much, yes you drink too much
Gal, you can't do nothing when you drink too much

Clarinet solo

You think you're tough but you're awful frail
You're gonna find yourself in the county jail

You drink too much, yes you drink too much
Gal, you can't do nothing when you drink too much

When we met you were drunk and beat
Messed around with everyone you'd meet

You drink too much, yes you drink too much
Gal, you can't do nothing when you drink too much

Piano solo

When we first met you had pretty skin
All you think about is whiskey and gin

You drink too much, yes you drink too much
Gal, you can't do nothing when you drink too much

Trumpet solo
